The plan is to give the Chicago, Burlington & Northern the privilege of using the C. M. & St. Paul tracks east to Milwaukee, and giving the St. Paul and Milwaukee road a direct connection from the Mineral Point Division of its road to Savannah and the Mississippi river. The report excites great interest, both in Galena and at St. Paul, says a telegram.

THE DAILY GAZETTE.

Has increased its circulation twenty-five per cent during the past year. As an advertising medium it is recognized as reliable and effective.

The WEEKLY GAZETTE is without a rival in the county. The rates of advertising are always based upon circulation. If you have anything to say to the people of the city or county you can speak to more of them through the columns of the GAZETTE than through any other medium published in the same territory.

Entirely.

—Next week will be a showy one.

—Another snow storm last evening.

—The Beloit Argus has changed hands.

—Children's concert this evening at the opera house—Prof. Torrens conducting.

—Regular meeting of the National Union at 7:30 o'clock this evening. A full attendance is desired.

—W. H. Sargent Post No. 20, G. A. R., rally in semi-monthly reunion this evening at Post Headquarters.

—The Odd Fellows and their families will hold a social reunion and dance at Odd Fellows hall on to-morrow evening.

—The snow storm of last night added between two and four inches of the "beautiful" to the supply already on the ground.

—The members of the Janesville Concordia society and their families enjoyed a social reunion at Concordia hall last evening.

—The man who takes a contract to keep sidewalks clean through the whole winter is doing quite a business in some parts of the city.

—From the condition of Milwaukee street bridge to-day it seemed as though the city was trying to build up a business for the street cars.

—An open winter has no visible connection with open doors that seem to travel together except that just now most of the opening is being done by the doors.

—People's Lodge No. 400, Independent Order of Good Templars, assemble in regular weekly meeting this evening—lodge room in the Court Street M. E. church block.

—Beloit's one-legged sister has a backer in this city who writes to the Chicago papers, indignantly denying that Humbolt Park was the only phenomenon of that kind in existence.

—"Why don't you clean the snow and ice off your walk?" was the reply of a second ward robin to-day when reminded that it was a violation of the city ordinances to skate on the sidewalks.

—There is before the county board of supervisors, as we go to press, a motion to rescind the resolution that provided for a register of probate in the county court. The question of whether the county or the sheriff is obliged to pay for turnkey hire is also being discussed.

—It would be a good thing if the street commissioner would devote a little of his leisure time in clearing the sidewalks of all the bridges of the winter's accumulation of snow and ice. The removal of the snow and ice from the plank would tend to preserve the same and also make it more convenient for pedestrians.

—Supt. Chas. Atwood, of the street railway, says the only place the snow is interfering with the movement of the cars is between the Myers house and River street. No difficulty is experienced at other points on the line. The four-horse snow plow was brought out this morning and the drifts were soon scattered.

—The ninth annual party of the Bowler City Bibles will take place this evening at the armory, and all arrangements have been completed for an enjoyable evening. The tickets are only fifty cents. Anderson's orchestra will furnish the music, and supper will be served at Taskwood's. The Bibles will welcome all their friends and insure them a pleasant time.

—Last evening, passers-by upon Milton avenue could not fail to observe the brilliant illumination of the tobacco warehouse of Mr. John A. Decker. About one hundred and fifty guests were gathered from the city and the adjoining towns of Center, Footville, Beloit, Muskegon, and Johnson, and the hours rolled by too swiftly in the enjoyment of the merry dance. Ample refreshments were served in the basement, and when stars began to pale, the jolly crowd dispersed, fully convinced that Mr. and Mrs. Decker are indefatigable in the hospitable entertainment of their guests.

LIFE AT FOREST HOME.

Frances E. Willard's Story of Her Years Around Janesville.

Twenty-one years ago Frances E. Willard began to write the story of her life at "Forest Home," the name of Mr. Willard's farm near this city. She was interrupted and not until now has she resumed her work. This week there appears in the "Young Crusader," a temperance paper published in Chicago, the first installment telling of how the journey was made from Ohio to Wisconsin.

They passed through Chicago in covered wagons, and decided that they "couldn't be hired to live there," because so many of the streets were vast mud holes, with signs up, "No bottom here," to keep people out of danger. One of their horses sunk almost to its ears in the "quicksand," and men had to pull him out with fence rails.

The experiences of the family in Wisconsin are narrated as those of Mr. and Mrs. Willard and their three children. "Atherton" is her brother Oliver; "Nelly" is her sister Mary (of "Nineteen Beautiful Years"), and "Kate" is the author herself. Miss Willard says by way of introduction: "I have 'fixed it up a little,' of course, and don't pretend that it is just what happened in those beautiful old times when I was young, but only that much of it did happen."

BELOIT COLLEGE NOTES.

The "Argus" Sold Out—A Janesville Single Sheet Postponed—New College Building Needed.

Beloit, Jan. 14.—Mr. H. O. Swain, B.S., sold out the Beloit Weekly Argus to E. O. Brown, of the Senior class, who, with the help of two other students, will edit it hereafter. Mr. Swain is in Chicago at present.

Mr. J. R. Cunningham expected to entertain a large delegation of his college friends this evening at his home, but owing to the illness of his father, the event has been postponed.

Prof. Whitney was the first one of the faculty to go down the toboggan slide, which he did very gracefully. The slide was opened more or less formally last Saturday afternoon.

The overflowing condition of the academy is calling attention to the necessity of a new and suitable building. The crowded condition of one hundred and twenty students in two rooms, is contrary to all sanitary laws, and certainly not conducive of the best results.

A new edict, the students who attend the First Congregational church can hereafter obtain seats only in the extreme front. This has been the cause of a good deal of energetic language lately.

Prof. J. B. Emerson lectured on "Socrates" before the Argonaut club last night in Rockford, and to-night makes the dedicatory address of "Bill Ball" the new gymnasium and conservatory at Rockford Seminary.

Two adventurous preps have distinguished themselves by sliding down the steep and icy toboggan slide on their narrow "skates." A looked iron bar will keep such, and the micks off hereafter.

The most economical soap is Fairbank's, manufactured by N. K. Fairbank & Co., Chicago.
